

THE KURT MARQUART FUND FOR THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION IN HAITI

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HAITI COMES TO SYMPOSIA

FORT WAYNE, IN – January 30 – The Kurt Marquart Fund for Theological Education in Haiti was privileged to fund the travel for members of two members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Haiti (ELCH) in order that they may attend the Symposia at Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, IN.

The two members, Rev. Marky Kessa, President of the ELCH and Eliona Bernard, President of Concordia Theological Seminary Haiti, were able to attend the 24th annual symposium of Exegetical Theology on "The Coherence of the Sacred Scriptures" and the 32nd annual symposium of The Lutheran Confessions entitled "A Last Look at Missouri's Critical Time: The 1950s to 1970s."

While at Symposia, several members from The Marquart Fund and the ELCH were able to meet and discuss ways to better serve the needs of the church in Haiti and understand the current situation of Haiti for Lutherans. This was a great opportunity for all to learn on a theological level and a practical level.
